Digital Service Tax in Indonesia from International Taxation Perspective

PMK-48/PMK.03/2020

Webinar will be presented in English

Indonesia has just released the Minister of Finance Regulation PMK-48/PMK.03/2020 dated May 5th 2020, imposing VAT for Digital Services. Before Indonesia, some countries have applied Digital Services Tax, such as Austria, Brazil, the Czech Republic, the European Union, Italy, Spain, Turkey and the United Kingdom. United States President Donald Trump's reacted on this regulation and announced investigations into foreign digital services taxes. The Question is, Are we ready? DST in Indonesia from International Taxation Perspective will discuss about PMK-48, starting from the preparation of Indonesia's regulation to cover DST, What Digital Business Actors should prepare and What Indonesia can do to strengthen this regulation.
